Farnham Bridge Club

JEREMY DHONDY BRIDGE SEMINAR

FRIDAY 19th FEBRUARY 2010

at the Memorial Hall, West St, Farnham GU9 7DX

We are delighted to welcome Jeremy Dhondy to Farnham Bridge Club to present a bridge seminar for us. Jeremy in partnership with his wife has won the European Mixed teams in 2007, and in 2009 his team won the Camrose Trophy. He is a winner of lots of domestic trophies, including the Hubert Phillips and the Grand Masters on more than one occasion. He writes a regular column for English Bridge and is a member of the editorial board. He is also currently the Chairman of the EBU's Laws and Ethics Committee and is a regular Appeals Chairman.

The format will be the same as in previous years, with two sessions, afternoon and evening, with practice hands to be played in both sessions. The topics to be covered are:

Afternoon:	When to Double, types of double, agreement on what and when, being consistent when doubling.
Evening:	How to use Conventions and how not to use them. Horrible accidents can occur from misusing conventions such as Blackwood and UNT, Weak twos etc – how to avoid them!

The seminar will be open to both members and non-members and you may attend either or both sessions. Sandwiches and hot drinks will be available between the sessions. Numbers will be limited to about 80 at each session. If you would like to attend, please complete the booking form below and return it to Keith McKenzie.
